

Climate Resilient Communities Fund Kia Manawaroa Te Taitokerau!

The Climate Resilient Communities Fund supports projects that help Northland's most affected communities withstand our changing climate.

This fund prioritises four impact areas where communities can take immediate and meaningful action: Food resilience (Te Kai), Water resilience (Te Wai), Energy resilience (Te Ngao), and Nature-based resilience (Te Taiao).

Who can apply

Applications to the Climate Resilient Communities Fund must be for projects within Te Taitokerau and can be from

- » community or neighbourhood groups
- » tāngata whenua (hapū or iwi groups/marae committees)
- » social enterprises and not-for-profit businesses
- » education providers
